Please note that the FOC may need to reach out to you by phone or email to get more details. If you do not respond to the FOC's request for information, the FOC may simply file the Parenting Time Complaint in your FOC file without taking any further action.

*Please note that if you are represented by an attorney, the FOC will usually not take administrative action on your case because of limited parenting time resources since you may work with your attorney to seek appropriate relief.

If you want your Court order changed, do not use this form. You will need to file a motion with the Court seeking that change.	If you believe your children are being abused/neglected, you can report that to CPS at 1-855-444-3911.
